

Camp Youngblood at

Camp Holiday Trails

A Camp for Children with Special Health Needs

400 Holiday Trails Lane
Charlottesville, VA 22903
Ph. (434) 977-3781
campisgood@campholidaytrails.org
www.campholidaytrails.org

When: Sunday, July 22-27, 2012

Who: Children ages 7-17 with a bleeding disorder and their siblings who live in Virginia

What:

- 75 acres of beautiful woodlands and hiking trails
- 5 youth cabins and 2 Blazer (teen) cabins
- Dining Hall and Commercial Kitchen
- Swimming, arts and crafts, drama, music, dances, talent show, campfires, etc.
- Sport Court
- Challenge Course with Climbing Wall (high and low ropes elements)
- Therapeutic Riding Program
- Waterfront with canoeing, kayaking and fishing
- MedKorner - fully equipped healthcare center

Applications: Applications are available online at www.campholidaytrails.org or www.vahemophilia.org
You can also contact the Virginia Hemophilia Foundation at 1-800-266-8438 or vahemophiliaed@verizon.net to get an application.

Cost: Free. However, there is a $25 refundable application fee, which will be returned when you check-in for camp.

Camp Holiday Trails will be providing a "Things to Bring" list. If you feel it may be difficult to bring any of the items listed, please contact the Camp.