

Terry Lamb Enrichment Scholarship Application

VHF is pleased to offer the Terry Lamb Enrichment Scholarship that focuses on leadership, volunteerism and/or health promotion. The scholarship can be used for any program (i.e. camp, educational/life skill classes, fitness programs or activities, etc.) that enhances one's self-esteem, confidence, overall health, leadership skills, areas of interest, development of life skills, and volunteerism.

Scholarship Guidelines:

- Scholarship applicants will be determined through a review process conducted by volunteers on the Scholarship Committee
- Scholarships are limited to funding availability
- Priority/special consideration is given to
 - First time applicants and those individuals not previously funded by VHF
 - Individuals diagnosed with an inherited bleeding disorder
 - Individuals who have volunteered and/or are an active member of VHF
 - Those individuals who are clearly able to communicate a need and would benefit from participating in such a program
 - Applicant's intention to make effective use of the program (write an article in the Facts and Factors newsletter or speak about the experience at an upcoming VHF event)
- Scholarships will be for costs associated with registration/enrollment. You will be responsible for all other fees. Payment will be made directly to the entity OR a receipt must be provided for reimbursement. Documentation of attendance is required.
- Applicants must live within VHF's territorial jurisdiction; which include the Commonwealth of Virginia, with exception of the following: The cities of Alexandria, Fairfax, Falls Church, Herndon, Manassas, Manassas Park, and Vienna and the counties of Arlington, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudon, Prince William and Stafford
- Scholarship recipients understand that if they are selected, expenses are paid, and then they do not participate in the program or fail to give a valid excuse they may be asked to reimburse VHF for all expenses incurred on their behalf.
